They had four children whom Carol stayed at home to raise. She taught math part time at her children's elementary school, Aquinas. She was a member of P.E.O. and actively served for many years. She also volunteered at Birthright in Woodbridge, VA. Carol lived her life by the motto, "Live simply. Love generously. Care deeply. Speak kindly. Leave the rest to God." Carol's innumerable thoughtful acts of kindness will never be forgotten by all those who were blessed to have been touched her selflessness and gracefulness.
