

Born: March 3, 1945 Death: September 17, 2010

John Frederick Davis, age 65, was healed of cancer as he went home to be with Jesus on September 17, 2010.

He was born March 3, 1945 in Iowa City, Iowa to Cathryn and Col. John F. Davis, who preceded him to glory. He was a member of the Corp of Cadets at Texas A&M and graduated in 1968 with a degree in Mathematics. He continued his service with the U.S. Army as a Field Artillery instructor at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. In December of that year he married his bride, Jo Ann Collins. He then served his country in Vietnam and Germany.

After returning to the States in 1975, he earned a second degree in Computer Science at East Texas State University and began his career in Austin, Texas as a computer programmer at IBM. He retired in 2002 and established his own computer consulting business. He also remained active for over 30 years in Williamson county politics by tirelessly helping with elections and serving as a precinct chairman.

During his free time he enjoyed the company of family and friends, traveling, nature hikes with his wife and playing with his two grandsons. He loved the Lord and he loved people.

He is survived by his loving wife of 41 years, Jo Ann Davis of Austin, Texas; Daughter and Son-in-Law, Barbara and Mark Goodrich of Leander, Texas; Daughter, Heather Davis of Mesquite, Texas; Grandsons, Connor and Aidan; Sister and Brother-in-Law, Randi and Col. William Buche, of San Angelo, Texas; Sister and Brother-in-Law, Lynn and Terry Odom of Cibolo, Texas and many other loving family members and friends.

A funeral service will be held Thursday September 23, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. at Northwest Fellowship in Austin, Texas. Military honors will follow at 2:30 p.m. at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas. If desired, donations may be made to Hill Country Community Ministries, PO Box 1064 Leander, TX 78646-1064.
